NEBRASKA GETS REVENGE

Smother South Dakota in Return for Last Year's Humiliation.

VISITORS ONLY ONCE DANGEROUS

Cornhuskers Resort to No Tricks, but Stick to Straight Foot Ball—Captain Weller's Punting a Feature.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Oct. 5.—(Special.)—Nebraska scored rich revenge for last year's humiliation, piling up a score of 29 to 0 against the sturdy South Dakotans on the Nebraska field this afternoon. Without resorting to a single trick play, and sticking closely to straight old-time foot ball, the Cornhuskers were easily able to take the measure of a better team than they did to a score of 4 to 0 in 1906. The visitors put up a plucky fight, however, and the game resulted far differently from what the footers expected from the work of the first ten minutes of play. Though overwhelmingly defeated, the northerners drew the very evident approval of one of the largest crowds that ever watched an early season game on Nebraska field. They left at 6 o'clock this evening in good condition and with the consolation of having done their best.

The result of the game bore out the estimate of the northerners' coach, Whittemore, after he saw the Cornhuskers in action against Penn last Saturday. Nebraska played hard foot ball every minute of the game. In the last half the Dakotans sent a series of cold shivers up the spines of the rooters by forcing the ball by straight line backs from their own twenty-yard line to the Nebraska twenty-five yard line. Here they resorted to a forward pass which was promptly nabbed by Cooke. Otherwise they might have escaped a shut-out, for the Cornhuskers were near a panic, though fighting back desperately. But once in possession of the ball Nebraska recovered its nerve and managed to score two more touchdowns before time was called.

Nebraska's star was again Captain Weller, whose splendid punting gave the Cornhuskers two of their touchdowns. The husky captain also kicked a pretty goal from the field in the second half, and was always able to make good gains either by lugging the ball through the opposing line, or by breaking around the ends or through the tackles. Hare and Simpson did brilliant work for the visitors, especially during their sprint in the second half, being responsible for the greater part of the distance gained by the northerners. Nebraska's entire back field did good work, while Heltzer and Johnson on the ends showed evidence of the attention that has been devoted to their positions by Coach Cole.

First Score a Fumble.
Nebraska's first score was in the nature of a fumble. After forcing the ball by steady plunging down to the visitors' forty-yard line at the very start of the game, Nebraska at length surrendered it on down. A forward pass gave Brown a thirty-yard gain, but the play was not allowed, the ball being brought back. A punt gave the pigskin to Nebraska. The ball changed possession a couple of times, Dakota's punting gaining about twenty yards. Weller finally punted from the center of the field to Simpson, on the visitors' goal line. The punt was fumbled. Matters jumped high in the air and knocked the ball over the line, where Harvey fell on it, scoring Nebraska's first touchdown. Weller failed to kick goal. Score: Nebraska, 6; South Dakota, 0.

Kroger made the second touchdown, straight line bucking, aided by Weller's punts, carrying the ball well down into the visitor's territory and giving Kroger the opportunity to carry it across with a center buck. Weller kicked goal. Score: Nebraska, 12; South Dakota, 0.

Latin kicked off to Matters, on the thirty-five yard line. Matters lugged the ball ten yards, Nebraska made distance once, but a penalty forced a punt. The Dakotans resorted to another forward pass, which Burnett caught and ran with it thirty yards before being downed. A fumble lost ground for Nebraska, and Weller made a short punt to Simpson, who did some clever work, fighting his way back with the ball. Dakota could not gain consistently and Latin finally punted to the center of the field, Nebraska worked the ball back twenty yards, when Kroger broke straight through the line for a touchdown. Weller kicked goal. Score: Nebraska, 18; South Dakota, 0.

Weller's Long Punt.
Latin kicked off to Minor, who returned the ball twenty yards to Nebraska's forty-five yard line. Minor carried the ball ten yards in two downs, but a fifteen-yard penalty forced Weller to punt. The kick was the sensation of the game, the ball sailing full seventy-five yards well over the head of Coffey. The latter reached the ball after a long run, but fumbled it, and Collins fell on it, Nebraska's last touchdown of the first half. Weller kicked goal.

The first score of the second half was a goal from the field by Weller. Nebraska worked the ball steadily down to the visitors' twenty-five yard line, where Dakota breached and Nebraska could not hold it in two downs. Weller dropped back and executed a pretty drop kick, the ball going squarely between the posts. Score: Nebraska, 24; South Dakota, 0.

South Dakota's spirit followed Weller's feat, the visitors taking the ball on a punt by Weller following the kick off. From the twenty-five yard line they carried it back by speedy gains, Simpson, Hare and Olyer attacking Nebraska's center, guards and tackles fiercely for good gains. Cooke finally secured the ball on a forward pass on Nebraska's twenty-five yard line, over for the fifth touchdown, Kroger making it. Weller kicked goal. Score: Nebraska, 30; South Dakota, 0.

The final touchdown was scored by Minor, who broke away for a thirty-yard run across the visitors' goal. Score: Nebraska, 36; South Dakota, 0. The score was the last of the game. The lineup:

BADGERS FILL GAPS IN LINEUP

Practice Work Develops Strong Men for Several Positions.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—Two weeks of practice have now passed by, so that those who have watched the work each night can make some estimate as to the probable lineup that will be used by the Badgers in the games this fall. At center, Steinhilber, who was given a position on the all-western team by some of the critics at the conclusion of last season, appears to have a hold on the position, although he was not in his old position Thursday night. It was the day of the rush and Coach Hutchings issued the order that any man who remained away from the practice would not be put in the lineup again. Steinhilber did not get out to the foot ball field until late in the afternoon and the coach made his word good by transferring Lach, the big freshman crew man who has been working at guard, in his position. Lach is heavy and fast and may give Steinhilber a hard time, for the place, although it is generally conceded that Steinhilber will play there this fall.

At guards the coaches have been trying out three men, Huntley, who was in that place last year; Davidson, who played on the University of Indiana two years ago, and Lach. It seems to be about a toss-up between the men up to now as all the work done has been running through signals.

Murphy, captain of the freshmen crew, is making a gallant fight for tackle and he should land it without the least doubt. Dittman, an old "W" man, is out for the other tackle position and should be given a place, although Boyle is giving him a hard fight.

One change has been made during the week and that is the shifting of John Messmer, who was elected captain to succeed Charles Miller, who was barred on account of his studies, to right end. The big fellow is speedy, beating the other men down the field on kicks with great regularity. At the other end of the line, Rogers, last year's end, is holding down his old place.

A better aspect has been given the quarterback position during the last week by the appearance of three more men for a try at it. Scribner, the fast little basket ball captain, has reported and has been showing good form and speed. Rogers of Milwaukee is also out for the position, as is Bartlett, of the same city. Fazio, who has been played at the position for nearly two weeks, is rapidly becoming accustomed to the work and shows signs of developing into a good man.

The coaches have been using Wiles, who was tried at end for a few days, at right half and he may be kept there if he can keep up the pace he has set. Ottorf has the fullback position clinched, while Schwann and Oliver are fighting it out for the vacant half.

Some disappointment was expressed last night when it became known that Arne Lerum and Earl Driver, both former varsity stars, who were depended upon for a portion of the coaching, would not assist. Coach Hutchings has been trying a new play this week. It is called the "pinwheel revolution," with one of the halves or the quarter carrying the ball. Another is what is known as a mass twist, in which the quarter bluffs at going into the line and then skirts one of the ends, hurling the ball to another player as he is about to be tackled.

Fire-side Championship.

The rain interfered with the great game which was scheduled to be played between the Drake and the University of Nebraska last Sunday, and the only way they can now have which is the better team is by fanning it over around the fire-side this winter.

CREIGHTON DOWNS TARKIO

Omaha University Proves Too Much for Missouri College.

TWO THOUSAND SEE THE GAME

Large Crowd and Ideal Day Make Auspicious the Opening of the Foot Ball Season for the Locals.

Creighton, 24; Tarkio, 0.

By superior all-around work Creighton overwhelmed the strong team from Tarkio Saturday afternoon at Vinton street park with the score of 24 to 0. The game was marked by a few brilliant dashes on the part of the Creighton eleven and by dogged perseverance against heavy odds on the part of the boys from Missouri.

The game was a most auspicious opening of the foot ball season in Omaha, and a crowd of about 2,000 rooters was out to see the blue and white down the proud colors of the Missouri eleven. The Creighton management made a most popular move when it decided to issue complimentary tickets to all the students of the Omaha High School. The invitation was accepted by a large number, and especially in large numbers, and with the help of the regular rooters of the Creighton team, filled the west bleachers, part of the grand stand, formed a solid line along the east side of the field and filled numerous carriages and automobiles which were allowed on the east side of the field. Creighton's band was on hand and from its position in the middle of the west bleachers kept the crowd jolted up with a program of popular airs.

Tarkio is Outclassed.
It was evident from the first that the Tarkio team was outclassed, as immediately after the first kickoff the Creighton boys rushed the ball to the north goal for the first touchdown in two minutes after play was called. The goal was missed.

The ball then swayed back and forth in the middle of the field and went for a touchdown, which many thought was a safety, but the referee decreed otherwise, and the ball was brought out to the twenty-five yard line. Tarkio was forced to give up the ball and Brome booted it down the field, where Donovan nailed it and scooted for a touchdown.

Tarkio was not able to gain its distance any more during the afternoon and it was only a matter of how many touchdowns Creighton could make in the allotted time.

Brome Too Fast for Others.
Captain Brome of the Creighton team handled his men in fine fashion, the only criticism being that he was a little too fast for the rest of them and often had the play away before they were ready, but that is a fault incident to the early season and will easily be corrected by Creighton could make in the allotted time.

Bowman, left halfback of the Tarkio team, seemed to be the star on that team and he was all but put out of the game near the end of the first half by a head-on collision with the players' bench in front of the grandstand. He was able, however, to resume the game in the second half. Weaver passed the ball in poor form for kicks and it was the usual occurrence for the fullback to have to pick the ball from the ground on the pass. This cost one touchdown at least and probably several more.

NEW WAY OF ATHLETIC SUPPORT

Morningside College Will Tax Each Student for This Purpose.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—Morningside college will continue the system of athletic support, instituted with so much success last season. The system has been considered at all of the various colleges in the state, but Morningside has been the first to adopt it. It consists of taxing each student who registers in the institution $2 or $3 per semester and issue to him or her a pass to all of the athletic contests and all of the debates and student activities. The funds derived in this way are more than sufficient to meet the expenses of those activities, and the enforced payment insures a heavy attendance at all of them, even the debates. Grinnell college has been considering the advisability

GIRLS WILL ENTER ATHLETICS

Grinnell College Has Banned Young Women Together for Work.

GRINNELL, Ia., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—Among the new athletic activities of the various state educational institutions none has attracted more attention than the Grinnell College Girls' Athletic association, which will begin its second season this year with a substantial sum in the treasury.

Officers for the ensuing year have been elected as follows: President, Florence Nader; secretary, Edna Patterson; treasurer, Yastu Koyu. The association will embrace practically every girl in the institution, and under the encouragement of the institution will enter a good many new fields of activity. The more unusual of these are horseback riding, the horses to be furnished by the association; rowing, the boats and instructors to be furnished by the association; hockey and tennis. It is possible that several intercollegiate contests in hockey will be held.

ONIMODS AND OMAHAS DIVIDE

Two Leaders in the Bowling League Races of City.

The Onimods and the Omahas are dividing honors in the Omaha Bowling league, the Onimods being honored for winning every game played in the championship race and the Omahas being honored for losing every game rolled. The new men in the Omaha team have not lined up on their teamwork as yet, but hope to make a better showing in a short time. Outside of these two teams the others have about broken even in the games they have played.

In the Commercial league the race is also fairly even, except for two teams, which have lost but one game, and one team which has not won any.

Individually, Berger carried off the honors in the Commercial league, with a total of 199, with Walens second, with 183. In the Omaha league, Reynolds and Huntington were tied for first place, with 194, and Zimmerman and Jones were tied for second place, with 183 each.

BARON IN FAVOR OF PEACE

German Delegate Makes Speech at The Hague Favoring Obligatory Arbitration.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 5.—Baron Marschall von Bieberstein delivered a speech today before the arbitration committee of the peace conference in favor of obligatory arbitration, but opposed the treaty, including all the nations of the world. He said the general feeling was the conference, having dealt with questions of war, must do something for peace. He favored obligatory arbitration, through judicial treaties between nations in preference to a treaty, including the whole world, which it was proposed should apply to judicial and not to political matters, which, the speaker contended, would be impossible to separate, as what might be a judicial question in one country might be a political question in another, or might become a political question in regard to the scope of the litigation. In conclusion, the baron declared that the project, instead of regulating international litigation, would create new difficulties.

Detroit Wins One-Sided Game from St. Louis Ten to Two.

COBB MAKES A HOME RUN

Umpire Evans Makes His First Appearance Since His Injury Several Weeks Ago—Philadelphia Takes Pair.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 5.—The Detroit team won the American League pennant by beating St. Louis in a one-sided game, 10 to 2. Up to the fourth inning Powell held Detroit safely, no one reaching second base, but in the fourth Cobb's triple started a batting bee that sent Jones across the plate in that inning, and so worked upon Powell that two bases on balls, two triples and a double were marked up for Detroit in the fifth, netting five runs. After the disastrous fifth the result of the game was never in doubt. In the seventh and ninth innings, respectively, St. Louis made a run, but by the close of the game Detroit had added four more tallies to its score, three of them coming in the final inning.

It was expected that a crisp autumn day, the presence here of the leaders in the league race and the fact that there was a fighting chance that the St. Louis team would deprive it of the pennant would draw a record-breaking crowd, but it was remarked that the ground rules were unnecessary. Two more games are scheduled for tomorrow.

One of the features of today's game was the appearance of Umpire Billy Evans, who was severely injured by a thrown water bottle during the last Detroit series several weeks ago. Evans made his appearance in company with Umpire Sheridan and was warmly greeted by the Detroit players, who showed strong disapproval when the bottle was thrown. Score: ST. LOUIS, 2; DETROIT, 10.
